

Resources:

Three blog/articles I found online in ref. to The Chariot as a Year Card

<http://www.owlsdaughter.com/2014/01/the-tarot-year-of-the-chariot/> Beth Owl's Daughter, states: "Whether we like it or not, the "snooze bar" of our lives is not going to cut it anymore."

<http://blog.findhornpress.com/?p=2107> Findhorn Press Author Cindy Griffith-Bennett says: "Energy flows to where your attention goes! So this year, more than others, it will very quickly become apparent if you are sending your energy off to places it should not be. Obsessing (incessant focus) on something in the past, on the present, or upon someone else is going to drain you even quicker this year."

<http://readingsbyyerevan.com/2013/12/02/2014-year-of-the-chariot/> Readings by Yerevan, "This year is going to be so potent that it may look unlike what many of us have experienced before in our current lifetimes, bringing in many unique situations, people, and opportunities."

"Le Chariot"

By John Weiners

A flame burns in the morning.

It is the empty bag of horse

That carries the sun across the sky

And lights the love that blinds your eye.

It turns the night to infinite noon.

Changes the course of the unearthly moon

To ride in your heart instead of heaven.

This is the card that reads as seven.

(<http://newpathstarot.com>)